When my heart was young, I looked for all that I could take.
When my heart was young, I didn't comprehend the stakes.
When my heart was new, I didn't understand the dangers of,
Living on the edge, without love.

(Chorus)

To the heart of you that helped me through;
Every time I went astray, you never let me slip away.
To the heart of you, that loved me through;
I want you to know how much it's meant,
That it was time well spent... In the heart of me.

Well as my heart grew, I lost the days of innocence.
And as my heart flew, I cast away from common sense.
As my heart raced along, every turn I didn't know.
Coming around the curve, you held the sign, said, "Slow!"

(Chorus)

{Bridge}

*I hope in your heart that you can see;
There's a part of you that lives in me.
When I look back, on all I've done,
I see the footprints, that helped me to become...
Like the heart of you, that's in the heart of me.*

(Chorus)

[Tag/Outro]

To the heart of you who moved my mountains high.
You stood by faithfully and helped me reach for the sky.
To the heart of you... who loved the heart in me.
To the heart of you... who loved the heart in me.
